

This weekend of April 7 marks the 76th anniversary of the first attack on the city by the Nazi air force. Outside of the raids on London, Belfast was one of the cities worst affected in the British Isles by Luftwaffe attacks during the Second World War.

You can listen here to the author speak, in a piece specially recorded for the Foundation, about the three separate raids on the city and the carnage wrought on the citizens of Belfast through each attack; and the growing efforts of Brian Barton and the Northern Ireland War Memorial to have a public memorial erected to the victims of the blitz. Go to: www.booksireland.org.uk/store/all-departments/belfast-blitz

Abbeyshire Heritage Archive

This archive has many records that should interest you. It has many references to newspapers published in Ireland. Go to: <http://abbeyshireritagearchive.blogspot.com/>

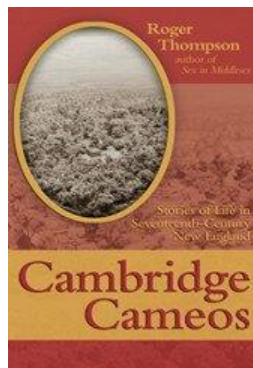

668,000 Pittsburgh, PA Cemetery Records Online

Interment.net, an online cemetery records archive serving genealogists since 1997, recently added over 668,000 records from 29 cemeteries located in the greater Pittsburgh, PA area. These records have dates of death from the 1750s to present day. Go to: <https://blog.eogn.com/2017/>

Library of Congress has put Sanborn Insurance Maps Online (FREE for anyone to access)

*The Library of Congress has placed online nearly 25,000 Sanborn Fire Insurance Maps, which depict the structure and use of buildings in U.S. cities and towns. Maps will be added monthly until 2020, for a total of approximately 500,000. Maps.Go to: <http://upfront.ngsgenealogy.org/2017/05/>

Cambridge Cameos

Author: Roger Thompson
Published: 2005

Cambridge Cameos contains forty-four sketches from the period 1651 to 1686 that combine good stories, intriguing personalities, and incidents involving mostly ordinary Cambridge people. They are based on thousands of original documents; virtually all primary sources with any bearing on the early history of Cambridge. Drawing on his vast knowledge of Middlesex County families and on his equally vast experience in the town and court records of that county, Roger Thompson has composed a number of delightful vignettes of early residents of the town of Cambridge. He provides us with a rare opportunity to hear these early New Englanders speak for themselves and to experience seventeenth-century life as directly as possible. This Book is available at <https://shop.americanancestors.org/collections/>

These days it seems you can't be alive on planet earth and not have met someone who happens to be doing an 'in depth search' on their ancestors, or in other words embarking on a spot of what is officially referred to as Genealogy. This crusade to find out more about where we came from, how we got here and, in doing so, possibly learn a lot more about our own personality and beliefs etc, has been growing phenomenally in popularity over the years here in America. To see the complete

These days it seems you can't be alive on planet earth and not have met someone who happens to be doing an 'indepth search' on their ancestors, or in other words embarking on a spot of what is officially referred to as Genealogy. This crusade to find out more about where we came from, how we got here and, in doing so, possibly learn a lot more about our own personality and beliefs etc, has been growing phenomenally in popularity over the years here in America.

These days it seems you can't be alive on planet earth and not have met someone who happens to be doing an 'indepth search' on their ancestors, or in other words embarking on a spot of what is officially referred to as Genealogy. This crusade to find out more about where we came from, how we got here and, in doing so, possibly learn a lot more about our own personality and beliefs etc, has been growing phenomenally in popularity over the years here in America.

