

Rootsweb Updated

They have created a plan to bring many of your contributions back online over the next few months. As they stated before, their first priority is security, and ensuring that every part of RootsWeb meets their stringent security standards. Try it and see what has been done at Rootsweb.ancestry.com.

GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY OF MICHIGAN`

2018 SEMINAR

This year's seminar will be held on Mar 24 at the Old Mill Museum. It is located at 242 Toledo Street, Dundee Michigan. The speaker is Dan Fantore. He will have four presentations. The topics will be; Evaluating Genealogical Evidence; Our People Were Farmers: Farming In Michigan, Background and Resources; Italian Genealogical Research and Writing Your Family History. To obtain a registration form go to: gsmcmi.org

The Guild of One-Name Studies is hosting a series of free webinars this year to introduce the concept of a one-name or surname study. They have discovered that members want to learn more about methodology and be able to ask questions or get tips on how others go about their studies. In 2018, there should be something for everyone. They will be having webinars on:

20 Mar: Now What? Do Something With Your Data

17 Apr: Using DNA With Your One-Name Study

15 May: Sharing The Joy: Getting The Word Out About Your Study

19 Jun: Publishing & Preserving Your Study

17 Jul: Six Months In With A New Study

21 Aug: My Italian One-Name Study

18 Sep: Back To School With Your One-Name Study

16 Oct: All About The Guild

Go to <http://genealogyalacarte.ca/?p=22303>

There are many books listed on this website as well as information on the ships that brought immigrants to America. Olive Tree Genealogy was chosen by Family Tree Magazine as one of the 101 Best Genealogy Websites 2017! Go to: <https://www.olivetreegenealogy.com/published.shtml>

Ellis Island History & Immigration Facts

Did your ancestor enter the United States of America through Ellis Island? Located on a small island in New York Harbor, the Ellis Island immigration station was in operation for 62 years and processed over 12 million immigrants. It's believed that 40% of United States citizens can trace their family tree to someone who arrived at Ellis Island. But how much do you really know about this busy port? Discover some of the top Ellis Island Immigration Facts below. Go to: <https://blog.genealogybank.com/ellis-island>

This week's crème de la crème

There are many references to blogs and articles that might be of interest in this website. Go to: <http://genealogyalacarte.ca/?p=22737>

My Heritage to donate 15,000 DNA kits

My Heritage recently announced the launch of a terrific new initiative, DNA Quest, to help adoptees and their birth families reunite through genetic testing. As part of this initiative, worth more than $1 million, for free, with free shipping, to eligible participants.

<http://genealogyalacarte.ca/?p=22891>